

Thursday think...

Our Value for July is Aspiration. This means to have a hope or a dream of something you want to achieve. It might be something that is difficult to achieve. Watch this short video about dreams for the future. There is one small part that might be a bit scary for little children (a cartoon rat).

Thursday think: What are your dreams for the future? What will you have to do to achieve it?

You don't need to write anything down, just have a chat with the rest of your family.
